Office of Legislative Counsel

Wednesday - 1 April 1959

1. Mr. Stoertz (ONE) had asked that he be notified when the Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee transcript and the DCI memorandum to Senator Lyndon B. Johnson (D., Tex.) were delivered so that he might advise OSI. Since Stoertz was out ill today, a call was made to Colonel White in OSI advising him of the delivery.

4. Talked with Mr. Eugene Kinnaly in the office of Congressman John W. McCormack (D., Mass.) concerning [redacted] Kinnaly was advised that while we had no specific position in mind and could not predict employment possibilities, we were inviting [redacted] in for an interview with our Personnel people.

5. Al Westphal, House Foreign Affairs Committee staff, called again to see what we had developed on the case [redacted] He was advised that we were in the process of gathering information [redacted] and would be in touch with him on Thursday or Friday.

6. [redacted] called and said the Director had indicated an interest in General Maxwell Taylor's testimony before the Military Operations Subcommittee of House Government Operations Committee. [redacted] asked if we could obtain a copy of the published hearings. After checking with the Subcommittee, [redacted] was advised that the hearings would not be printed for three weeks. He said he would check with the Director before asking that we attempt to obtain a copy of the Subcommittee transcript.
